Record entry for 'Post'-backed race

THIS year's Co-op Milk Blaydon Race seemed threated by heavy showers last Sunday but except for a short refreshing splash just after the start the record field of over 1,600 had little trouble.

St. Nicholas Cathedral bells rang out to welcome the starters in front of Balmbras Music Hall as dedicated athletics official Mrs Marie Garret selected another belle — the Bonny Blaydon Belle — to wear a suitably inscribed sash during the race.

Lynda Cook was judged bonniest of the bonny lasses and it was appropriate that Lynda, as a Blaydon Harrier should carry the sash for the first time.

Yet another bell — The Jackie Broon 1862 version this time — rang out to set the big field 'away along Collingwood Street' and a small group quickly broke away as they stretched out up Westgate Road.

Swinging into Clayton Street on a new stretch of the course the runners rejoined the old route along Scotswood Road and our came the sun to welcome those 'smilin faces'.

It was pleasing to see that long time entrant but recently injured Mike McLeod was there and moving well.

Clearing Scotswood Bridge the leaders were well strung out and as they climbed the Blaydon flyover into a stiff breeze the crowd at the finish in the Precinct Car Park caught their first glimpse of the race and saw Brian Rushworth of Sunderland and Jarrow's Paul Cuskin clear and locked in a bit of a tussle.

Going out of sight into central Blaydon the two emerged into the car park and as they sprinted around the final corner and into the straight it was clear that new boy Brian Rushworth, in serious running less than a year, would take the new Co-op Milk Blaydon Race Cup in 26.36 which is officially a new course record because of the changes made near the start.

In better conditions it should be possible to get nearer to Kevin Forster's 1983 record of 25.16.

Paul Cuskin eased into second place only four seconds adrift and John Solly (Durham University) came next, clear of Mike McLeod who was happy enough with his run after so much inactivity.

The Olympic Silver Medallist hasn't turned out in the Blaydon since winning the first event in 1981.

The arrival of Blaydon's own Jill Hunter was eagerly awaited and Jill duly arrived to take the ladies' trophy over a minute ahead of Pam McFarland, so reversing their positions a year ago.

Blaydon Harriers finishing system was now being asked to receive runners at over seventy a minute and this was sustained for over twelve minutes without trouble to be much admired by Gateshead's Mayor, Councillor Bill Ainsworth.

The crowd soon saw Lynda Cook (The Blaydon Belle) arrive with sash intact (40.16) and it wasn't long before TV's Bill Steel appeared (41.57).

The loudest applause of the day was kept for last runner home Monica Mary O'Neil from North Shields who, with husband James, took one of the special Me and Wor Lass awards.

A strange figure followed the last runner in as Lena Waters — wife of Blaydon president Jim, completed a sponsored blindfolded run over the course.

The organisers were pleased to welcome Mr Peter Armstrong and Mr Ian Miller, representing the new race sponsor Associated Co-operative Creameries Ltd., who presented the prizes with the wife of Bill Steel.

Team awards were taken by the talented Sunderland squad led by Brian Rushworth and by the strong Darlington lasses team.

Morpeth's 'gang of gadgies' with Eddie Hudspith and Jim Alder up front won the McCutcheon Veterans Team Shield by 'the length of Scotswood Road' and Ken McNally (Gateshead) rang the Blaydon Bell in taking the veterans award for the first time.

Both the winner Pam McFarland and runner-up Susan Wilson looked little like old dames in the lasses veteran section.

Ray and Anne Smedley had brought back the Me & Wor Lass trophy just before the start and they quickly regained it in taking this unique award for the third time by a clear margin.

Anne Smedley was also first unattached lady with John Dennis from Bishop Auckland taking the unattached lads award.

Mrs Judith Murray from the Geordie Ridley public house presented the Geordie Ridley Cup to the first young lad Stewart Bell (Chester-le-Street) who finished in overall 53rd place in 29.54.

Many runners were fortunate enough to receive spot prizes presented by the race sponsors, Associated Co-operative Creameries Ltd., or T-Shirts donated by Dixon Sports, Foothold and Stadium Sports and competitors made short work of the stotty cake supper at the finish.

Alan Dobson gave a lively commentary, as the runners arrived.

"In Blaydon Toon the crowds were oot and they were in their masses
To welcome aall the bonny lads and even bonnier lasses
We got wa breath and then we had some stotty, milk and beer,
And saaid goodneet to Blaydon — see ya aall again next year."
