GOLDEN WONDER BLAYDON RACE 92

THIS week The Post brings the full and complete results and prize winners list from this year's Blaydon Race.

So if you ran the 5.9 miles from Balmbras to Blaydon, then your name will appear on one of the following three pages.

But first, we kick off with the story of how the race was won!

A noisy start did nothing to dampen the spirits of the 2,000-plus runners who lined up at the start.

A pneumatic drill threatened to drown the traditional singing of the Blaydon Races, the song which inspired the race.

But after a quiet word with the workmen, Blaydon's Harry Halfpenny was able to get in a few verses — although some spectators said they preferred the sound of the drill!

In warm but windless conditions, good for watching but sticky for running, the Lord Mayor of Newcastle, Bob Cook got the race under way with Mike McLeod immediately racing clear of the pack.

Raced clear

The Elswick Harrier, with four wins already under his belt, was aiming to add not only a fifth title but also become the first man over 40 to win outright.

But, as the former Olympic 10,000m silver medallist admitted, there were plenty of keen younger runners after his scalp.

McLeod however was in no mood to take any prisoners and dictated the pace of the race from the start.

In 1981 he averaged 12.7mph over the 5.9mile course.

Challenge

And this year his rate was only slightly slower at 12.6mph. Dave Beris of South Shields provided the early challenge to McLeod and was leading as the pack set off down Scotswood Road.

By the time they reached Vickers however, Beris was beginning to flag leaving McLeod and eventual runner-up John Hunter of Loftus with a clear lead over the chasing pack.

Broke clear

McLeod broke clear of Hunter as the pair approached the Blaydon fly-over and continued to increase his lead in the final stretch, winning in a time of 27.59.

Hunter finished 13 seconds adrift with Steve Parr of Gateshead Harriers finishing a deserving third.
