★ THEY'RE AWAY! Runners set off through the streets of Newcastle at the start of the Blaydon Race 1996

Racing into history

SUNDERLAND'S Brian Rushworth has stamped his name firmly on the history of the Blaydon Race by notching up his second consecutive win.

Brian came home with a tremendous time of 27min 37sec — 11 seconds ahead of Morpeth's Commonwealth medalist Mark Hudspeth.

Gary Nagel of Gateshead came in third with a time of 27.56 with Terry Wall taking fourth spot.

The women's, or lasses, race was taken by Sonia Morley in a time of 33 minutes exactly while last year's winner, Sheila Allen had to make do with second place, missing out by just 25 seconds.

Shirley Griffiths followed in third before the familiar face of Kirsty Wade came home in fourth, only 1 minute and 47 seconds behind Morley.

Elsewhere, there was a victory in the Me and Wor Lass event for Australian couple Rhoda and Ian Haggan.

They narrowly beat Kirsty and Tony Wade to first spot, so they can take something back to the southern hemisphere as reward for their journey.

But the race is all about a special day out — and that is exactly how it turned out.

The start of the race is always special but this was the tops . . . better than all others by the width of Scotswood Road.

The beautiful weather ensured a big turn-out and as the crowds built up towards the 2pm start, so did the music and dance led by Coffee Johnny and the Mugs.

The traditional High Spen Blue Diamonds and Short Circuit dance teams were so very different in style to the Nike Modern Event Team, up from London for the day, with music which seemed to threaten the tower of St Nicholas Cathedral.

Add to that the quirky street entertainers who patrolled the streets for Eurofest and the whole thing became one great Gordie Festival on Tyneside's own special day, the ninth of June.

There was still more to come in the Federation Brewery Blaydon Race as the crowd in front of Balmbras welcomed the new BAF President, Mary Peters, to Tyneside.

Fun

She spoke of her commitment to the future of British athletics and of how much her ideas of retaining a spirit of fun in sport were so well expressed in the Blaydon Race.

As the traffic cleared and the lads and lasses got ready a group of French runners ran through to big cheers to meet the Lord of Mayor of Newcastle before he rang the old bell to start the 1996 race.

The massive field seemed to take a long time to get away 'Alang Collingwood Street', leaving a strange silence. The field was classy — the best for some years — with entries from almost all of the top local women and only Stewy Bell missing from the men.

It was clear from the start that the defending champions Brian Rushworth and Sheila Allen were going to be tested. The weather was beautiful for spectators but running along the Scotswood Road in the heat was going to challenge them and make record times unlikely.

The early pace was fast but attempts to get away consistently failed as the field snaked around Railway Street and out on to Scotswood Road for the straight two-and-a-half mile section to Scotswood Bridge.

Climbed

At the bridge, a group of four finally eased clear of the field. A determined Rushworth now had Mark Hudspeth and Terry Wall of Morpeth and Gateshead's Gary Nagel to handle.

Each attacked in turn all the way along Chainbridge Road and Hudspeth made one last desperate effort to get clear as they climbed the flyover into Blaydon and came into the view of the crowd waiting in the Blaydon Precinct Car Park.

Hudspeth's surge got rid of Nagel but at the same time so drained his reserves that Brian Rushworth was able to kick away — and finally looked a comfortable winner with an 11 seconds gap.

This was his third Blaydon win and as he held the Federation Brewery Blaydon Cup again he recalled his first in 1985. That had been his first 'big un' because he had emerged from the fun run scene less than a year before.

Welshman Iwan Ellis (Elswick) was best of the rest. Gateshead's young Dominic Flint's 11th place was particularly pleasing to his friends at Blaydon.

The crowd were then waiting for the first lass and Sonia Morley of Jarrow ran out of her socks to hammer a classy field with a superb bit of running.

Sonia's win wouldn't have been so surprising a few years ago when she was running for Blaydon but after getting married to Bernard she slackened a little but is now obviously back ready to push that diminutive figure and trouble some of the greatest.

Astonishing

Shirley Griffiths was next in, followed by Blaydon's Kirsty Wade looking ready for competition again after having two children.

The first Dame's award was some compensation for Sheila Allen — and Eleanor Robinsons was an astonishing 8th overall at 48 years young!

Ian Haggan finished in spectacular fashion as he ran himself right out into 13th overall and just managing to reach the line. His efforts gave him First Gadge position and he rang the Blaydon Bell trophy in traditional fashion as Mary Peters presented the prizes.

Ian and his lass Rhoda also won the Me and Wor Lass Trophy for the second time.

Best young lad was last year's winner Andrew Sugden from New Marske, 104th overall. Alyson Dixon from Sunderland was first young lass and 17th overall.

There was little doubt that a powerful Morpeth would take the Callers Team trophy from Gateshead and the host club were pleased to see the Blaydon Lasses team come out on top to lift the Cushie Butterfield Trophy.

History

Hudpath's surge got rid of Nagel but at the same time so drained his reserves that Brian Rushworth was able to kick away — and finally looked a comfortable winner with an 11 seconds gap.

Brian commented afterwards that it had been every bit as hard as expected. This was his third Blaydon win and as he held the Federation Brewery Blaydon Cup again he recalled his first in 1985. That had been his first "big un" because he had emerged from the fun run scene less than a year before.

Welshman Iwan Ellis (Elswick) was best of the rest. Gateshead's young Dominic Flint's 11th place was particularly pleasing to his friends at Blaydon.

The crowd were then waiting for the first lass and Sonia Morley of Jarrow ran out of her socks to hammer a classy field with a superb bit of running.

Sonia's win wouldn't have been so surprising a few years ago when she was running for Blaydon but after getting married to Bernard she slackened a little but is now obviously back ready to push that diminutive figure and trouble some of the greatest.

Astonishing

Shirley Griffiths was next in, followed by Blaydon's Kirsty Wade looking ready for competition again after having two children.

The first Dame's award was some compensation for Sheila Allen — and Eleanor Robinsons was an astonishing 8th overall at 48 years young!

Ian Haggan finished in spectacular fashion as he ran himself right out into 13th overall and just managing to reach the line. His efforts gave him First Gadge position and he rang the Blaydon Bell trophy in traditional fashion as Mary Peters presented the prizes.

Ian and his lass Rhoda also won the Mc and Wor Lass Trophy for the second time.

Best young lad was last year's winner Andrew Sugden from New Marske, 104th overall. Alyson Dixon from Sunderland was first young lass and 17th overall.

There was little doubt that a powerful Morpeth would take the Callers Team trophy from Gateshead and the best club were pleased to see the Blaydon Laas team come out on top to lift the Cushie Butterfield Trophy.
