There's nee scruffs in wor race!

SATURDAY, June 9th... well over two thousand runners assemble in the shadow of Newcastle Cathedral tower for the start of one of the region's classic road races.

They're celebrating their Tyneside heritage by running along Scotswood Road to Blaydon... in Blaydon Harriers' 10th Newcastle Brown Ale Blaydon Races.

Many of the runners responded to a request to wear their best caps, because as the race instructions said: "There's nee scruffs in wor race."

Blaydon's Harry Halliwell, led the runners in a couple of verses, of the Blaydon Races song, before making a presentation to the Bonny Lass, Eileen Taylor, who carried the Blaydon Belle sash.

Then at Balmora, Kirsty Wade presented race organiser, Dr Jim Dewar, with a print of the Blaydon Races, in recognition of his work on all ten races.

As the runners lined up to be started on their way, by the Deputy Lord Mayor of Newcastle ringing the 1862 Blaydon Bell, there was keen anticipation of an intriguing contest between Mike McLeod and Paul Cuskin.

The Elswick Express took no prisoners though, and he was quick to stamp his authority on the race taking the lead from the start.

Only Paul Cuskin was to make any effort to stay with McLeod and hung on desperately as the first mile was reached in a fast 4 min 24 sec. In another few hundred yards, the Elswick race away, with Cuskin then paying the price for staying with him as he slipped to an eventual 24th place.

Easing towards the end to 4½-minute pace and then to 5-minute in the absence of any opposition, Mike coasted over the finish line at the Greenlees Rd. with a new standard of 26 min 46 secs for the course, only a touch slower than his phenomenal record for last year on the old slightly shorter

Flat caps and broad smiles in the 10th annual Blaydon Races

Blaydon Races round-up by CHRIS HODGSON and JIM DEWAR, Race Organiser

Incorporating the Castle Market loop in the first mile the new course measures precisely 5.676 miles, making the winners average speed about 12.75mph. Not bad for a man who will be a veteran in the 1992 Blaydon Race.

Behind McLeod, clubmate Alan Johnson emerged in second place (27.13) from a close group of three, with Sunderland's Paul Campbell (27.15) and Blaydon's Ken Bell (27.19), leading Iain Ellis (Newport 27.29) and Alan Archbold (Washington 27.27).

A second Leeds

international, Sheila Catford, was second (30.49) with husband David Catford's time (30.18) allowing the couple to regain the Me & Wor Lass Trophy, they lost last year as first married couple. Tony and Kirsty Wade's aggregate time was exactly 1 minute slower. Incident Carolyn and Gwyn Potts had an advantage of only 10 seconds, over South Shields pair Cherry Alexander, and Keith Mackey in fourth place.

Kirsty Wade (Blaydon), easing back into competition, brought along baby Rachel to the start to see her mam get under way to beat clubmate Sonia Hogg for third place. Cont on page 23

King Mike!

MIKE McLeod showed the young pretenders that he is not about to relinquish his crown as King of the North-East road races when he stormed to an emphatic 27-second victory in the Newcastle Brown Ale Blaydon Race on Saturday afternoon.

The 38-year-old Elswick Harrier had been suffering from injury in the weeks leading up to the traditional June 9 event, but cast any doubts firmly aside by the manner of his win.

McLeod finished in a commendable 26 minutes 46 seconds, well clear of team-mate Alan Johnson and third placed Paul Campbell of Sunderland Harriers.

"It would have been nice for someone to have pushed me," commented McLeod. "But, sometimes it happens like that, and I'm just pleased that I ran a good race."

"I've had a few injury problems, but things have started to clear up. I'm still not 100% fit, but I seem to be getting there."

McLeod is a staunch follower of the local road race scene, and declared that he would be back to defend his crown in next year's event.

Races a great success

Maureen Lacey (1876th) and in so doing earned several thousand pounds in sponsorship for the Newcastle Brown Ale Newcastle Belle Trophy for the first time in 34.01 seconds. Elswick Harriers dominated the male team prizes with easy wins in both the 100m and 400m races. The ladies and gals' reactions whilst Blaydon easily took Cusbie Butterfield Taskard for the first time. The team and Claremont Road Runners beat Blaydon to the dam's team trophy. Sponsors Newcastle Breweries director Peter Spark put in a terrific effort to finish in 53.53.

Aaron is Kiddars champion

THE BLAYDON Races festival got off to a tearaway start earlier in the day when over 100 youngsters covered the last 1½ miles of the course in the Dixon Sports Kiddars Fun Run.

Many youngsters received spot prizes donated by Dixon Sports and Nike International.

The eventual winner was Aaron Baglee (pictured left), an unattached runner from Penrith, who recorded his time as an impressive 8 mins 12 secs.
